ST. MARY MISSION STATEMENT

Under the patronage of Our Blessed Mother, and rooted in the Roman Catholic faith since 1835, St. Mary Delaware is a vital and vibrant community that engages the living God in worship and prayer, and in Word and Sacrament. Led by the Holy Spirit, and imploring the intercession of St. Mary, we desire to imitate her role of being the Christ bearer, and bear witness to her Son's redeeming love that has been poured upon us in Baptism, and sustained by the practices and teachings of the Church.

Blessing of the First Foods at Easter

The tradition of the Blessing of the First Foods at Easter originated in some Slavic countries and it became an important custom among the Polish people, who still practice it today. A basket, for example, containing lamb meat (which of course signifies Jesus, the Lamb of God), boiled eggs, dyed and plain, Pascha (a special Easter bread), and other foods, is taken to the church in the afternoon where the priest or deacon blesses it. Among the Polish people the same custom is practiced, but the main foods blessed are an egg which is broken and shared by all on Easter Sunday morning, and a lamb molded of butter or pastry. This butter-lamb and blessed Easter egg have a place of honor on the festive Easter table.

This year, St. Mary will offer a special Blessing of the First Foods at Easter on Easter Sunday, April 4th immediately following the 9:00 am, 11:30 am and 2:00 pm Masses outside in the school courtyard. We ask that you not bring your baskets into the Church. If you wish to participate in this wonderful tradition, please bring your baskets of the First Easter Foods, as well other Easter baskets for the children for a special Easter Blessing to the school courtyard.

Pray for the strength and courage to be the answer to someone’s prayer. Learn how you can share your gifts to support your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. "I Heard God Laugh" Book Sale

Most of us are trying to put together the jigsaw puzzle we call life without a very important piece. In this extraordinary book, Matthew Kelly powerfully demonstrates that we cannot live the life we have imagined, or experience the joy we yearn for, unless we learn to tend the soul. From there, with his classic style of practical wisdom, he teaches us how to remedy this problem. The Women of St. Mary Ministry is having a book sale fundraiser at $3.00 per book. If you would like a copy (or more), email either Mona Reilly, tonymona45@gmail.com or Kathy Scott, kathyscott563@gmail.com.

THE PASSION IS HERE AND NOW*Reflection on Mark 14:1-15:47*

Today we enter the holiest week of the year, by hearing the story that we will ponder and reflect on for the rest of the week, as it unfolds through those days more deliberately, in smaller segments.

The key to the Passion Story we hear today, and to this coming week of worship, lies in accepting the Passion of Jesus as real and present, and not just a ritual enactment. These are not just historical events that we are remembering, but continuing acts of love in a story of God's love that is unfolding today, in your life and in mine. We heard this on the first day of Lent: The time is here! Salvation is now! If we die with Christ now, we will rise with Him now.

So take your place in the Passion Story. Maybe you identify with Peter, or Mary Magdalene, or Pilate, or even Judas. Or maybe you see yourself as one of the other characters. But it doesn't matter. We are part of the story; we are all the people and we are all the characters. God's unconditional love draws us into the story this week, and saves us now.

The Passion is our story, our drama. So how will it touch you this year? How will it surprise you, and challenge you? How is it saving you now?

~ Fr. Jay

HOLY SATURDAYApril 3*

Holy Saturday, the space in which most of our mental, emotional, and spiritual lives unfold. On summer's doorstep, in the wake of seeing the earth bloom to life, we are reminded of the coming dryness.

It's in the mystery of Holy Saturday – between the despair of Good Friday and the hope of Easter Sunday – that we experience an accurate picture of reality: one that is broken but also beautiful; one that is sometimes marked by loneliness and loss but is also woven with love; one where there is darkness yet also divine discovery.

Some people get psychologically stuck in the proverbial darkness of Good Friday, perhaps through scapegoating, negativity, victimization, or hopelessness. But it is also easy to mask pain or fear with the victory and conquering narrative that is often preached on Easter Sunday, using “winning” as a band-aid to avoid the darkness or doubt in our lives at all costs. On Holy Saturday, pain is not suppressed; it is acknowledged and dealt with fully. We are carried along by hope, sometimes paradoxically deeper into our pain, further into the tombs of our souls so that something new can resurrect. We discover the depth of our trust.

Even when life feels uncertain, even when we do not have the well-packaged conclusions we lust and obsess over, there is still so much of grace to taste and to see! Holy Saturday reminds us that amidst the chaos and transition of life, there is no such thing as “just another day.” Resurrection might be a day away. Something miraculous might be right around the corner. Even in the imperfections of life and in the waiting room of faith, Holy Saturday can take us deeper, if we let it, helping us to open our eyes and see that hope – even when victory is uncertain – is already here.
